

Jude M. Pfister

Chief of Cultural Resources, Morristown National Historical Park

Dr. Pfister has been at Morristown since 2004 where he oversees the museum, archival, and library programs. He has been with the National Park Service in the field of historic preservation and cultural resource conservation since 1993. A historian by training, he has experience in a variety of settings impacting many of our nation's most important historic sites. He is the author of several books as well as multiple articles and reviews. His most recent book, Morris County's Acorn Hall, was published by the History Press in May 2015. He is currently under contract for a book on the Federalist Papers.